

EOC Testing and Snacks

Students are highly encouraged to bring water and a nutritious snack to EOC Testing. Bottled water is the only beverage allowed during state testing.

Students may bring a nutritious snack. The following are suggested snacks that are appropriate for the testing environment:

- *Goldfish Crackers
- *Pretzels
- *Cheezits
- *Animal crackers
- *Dry, whole grain cereal: Cheerios and Chex cereals
- *Graham crackers (Teddy Grahams or other bite-sized graham crackers)

The following types of snacks are not appropriate for the testing environment:

- Sticky
- Greasy
- Liquid
- Stinky
- Messy

- Sticky snacks: peppermints, candy, sugary cereals, etc.
- Greasy snacks: chips, popcorn, etc.
- Liquid snacks: yogurt, fruit cups, energy drinks, etc.
- Snacks with a strong odor: Corn Nuts, peanut butter, etc.
- Any snack that will leave residue behind on an answer document or distract other testers is not appropriate for the testing room.

